Gold Cards Sold Out

- 1,000 cards fly off the shelf; second batch of cards to be issued today
- Tickets to be made available for Jumboo Savari, Torchlight Parade

Mysuru, Sept. 29 (RK&BCT)- Under pressure from the travel and tourism stakeholders who were demanding the Government to do more to promote tourism, the District Administration printed and issued 1,000 Gold Cards at 4 pm yesterday and by 11 pm, all the cards flew off the shelf. The authorities are now planning to issue the second batch of cards (number not specified) by today evening, sources said.

The Gold Cards, priced at Rs. 4,999 for a single card, were up for grabs at www.mysoredasara.gov.in and one person could buy just two cards.

The Gold Card gives access to Dasara programmes including the inauguration of the famed Jumboo Savari inside the Mysore Palace and there will be a separate seating enclosure at Torchlight Parade Grounds at Bannimantap.

The card gives one-time access to Mysore Palace, Mysuru Zoo, Chamundeshwari Temple atop Chamundi Hill, Dasara Flower Show at Kuppanna Park, Dasara Exhibition at Doddakere Maidan, Rail Museum, St Philomena's Cathedral and Krishna Raja Sagar (KRS) Dam.

Jumboo Savari: 1,000 tickets of Rs. 1,500 each

Torchlight Parade: 1,000 tickets of Rs. 1,000 each; 2,000 tickets of Rs. 500 each

Once the payment is made for the Gold Cards online, applicants can approach the Tourism Department inside the Mayura Hoysala Hotel premises on JLB Road to get the physical card. The e-mail confirmation of the payment and any identity proof can be submitted at the counters to obtain the physical cards.

As the demand for Gold Cards is high, the authorities are planning to issue the second batch of Gold Cards today and the details on the number of cards are not known yet. This time, the administration has chosen only online mode of payment to avoid people queuing outside the Gold Card issuing venues like it happened in the previous years.

Leopard sightings scare Gokulam residents

Security guard spots leopard early this morning; woman saw it three days back at the same location

Mysuru, Sept. 29 (RK&KS)- Gokulam is abuzz with just one news of late. About a leopard that is roaming around after dark. The residents are a scared lot and even if dogs bark continuously, they feel that the leopard has entered their territory.

Harish Kumar, a security guard of a house on 4th Main, 15th Cross, near the BSNL Telephone Exchange in Gokulam 2nd Stage, saw the leopard crossing the road at about 3 am this morning. A shocked Harish did not move from his guard's cabin amidst a residential pocket. He tried to have a clearer look at the leopard but the animal had entered the small opening of a drain adjacent to a park.

Harish immediately informed the jurisdictional Police and the Forest Department. Forest staff and Police launched a search till 7 am but in vain.

Harish said that three days ago, a lady too spotted the leopard in the same place and had told the people in the area about it.

It may be recalled here that a mother leopard with three juveniles was spotted at the Reserve Bank of India (RBI) campus near Metagalli a couple of days back.

Deputy Conservator of Forests (Territorial) Kamala Karikalan told Star of Mysore that they had received a call at 3.10 am today and two teams headed by Range Forest Officers conducted a search. As leopards are nocturnal animals, a combing operation will be launched tonight. If it is not traced today, a different strategy will be used to capture it, she added.

Leopards prey on dogs. But residents say that except for loud and persistent dog barking at nights, no carcass of dogs were found in the vicinity.

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

India is supposedly steeped in bureaucracy, but today's Government is crying out for bureaucrats, especially those from the Indian Administrative Service (IAS). As per the 2021 annual report of the Department of Personnel and Training (DoPT), the total number of 'in position' IAS cadre is 5,231 against a sanctioned strength of 6,746. A Parliamentary Committee corroborated this huge shortage of more than 1,500 IAS officers at the Central and State levels. With governance worsening by the day, it is imperative to address this shortfall to prevent having to appoint non-cadre officers to cadre posts or giving multiple charges to serving officers — both of which will have an adverse effect on administrative efficiency.

In 2018, the Government believed in an ambitious reform programme in civil service recruitment: Bringing in specialists through a lateral entry process. A report on the 2019 Joint Secretary level lateral entry recruits, however, shows that of the nine recruits, one did not join despite being selected, another quit and returned to the private sector while seven others soldier on, getting accustomed to the time-consuming and unproductive focus on paperwork and process in the Government, with umpteen roadblocks on the way.

Lateral hiring has failed to impress the Government, which now claims the recruits are market experts and not a substitute for the IAS. As domain experts, they are unsuitable for general administration but fit into Ministries such as Civil Aviation, that work in tandem with the private sector. — Priyan R. Naik in Deccan Herald

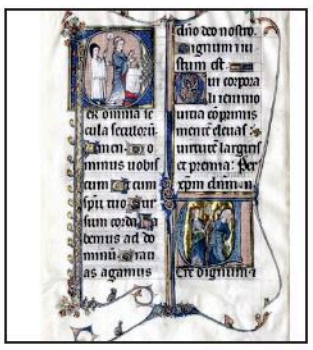
Family lives with corpse for over a year

Ahmedabad: The family of a 35-year-old man who died in April last year due to COVID-19 have been living with his body ever since, thinking he was only in a coma and would eventually wake up.

Vimlesh Sonkar, a young Income Tax Officer in Ahmedabad was admitted to a hospital on Apr. 19, 2021 and was pronounced dead only three days later after becoming infected with the coronavirus. A death certificate was handed to the man's family, but they refused to believe he had passed away and instead of giving him the last rites, they took his dead body home and cared for it as if he would eventually wake up. The man's mummified remains were discovered a few days ago, when a team from his workplace was sent to investigate his long-term absence. Police was notified about the situation, and Vimlesh's body was once again taken to a hospital where his death was once again confirmed. After this, his family finally agreed to have his body cremated.

Estate sale purchase page was a 13th-century manuscript



Waterville: A Maine man made the estate sale discovery of a lifetime when he paid $75 for a framed page of Latin script and music notations that turned out to be a 13th-century manuscript worth up to $10,000.

Will Sideri said he was at the estate sale in Waterville when he spotted the framed page and it reminded him of something he had seen during a course he took on medieval manuscripts at Colby College.

Sideri, who bought the page, showed it to his former professor, Megan Cook. Cook sent photos to a friend and fellow academic, Lisa Fagin Davis, and they both agreed it appeared to be a piece of The Beauvais Missal, a manuscript written in Beauvais, France, in the late 13th century.

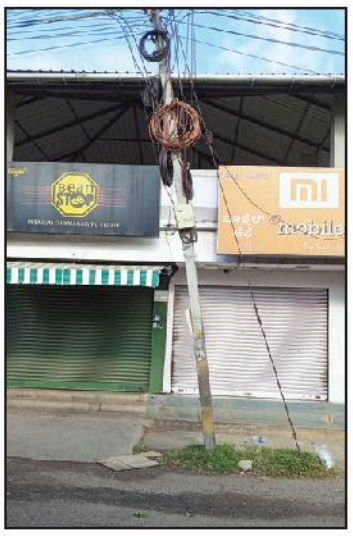
Dangerous electric pole!



Sir,

The picture alongside here of an electric pole was taken on Mutt Road (near Bank of Maharashtra), 1st Block, Jayalakshmipuram, Mysuru.

As can be seen, the pole is inclined towards one side and it might fall any time soon.

It is hoped that the CESC authorities concerned may look into this issue and take corrective action before it is too late.

State-level Chess tourney for visually challenged

Mysuru, Sept. 29 (SSM)- Dasara Mahotsav-2022 Sports Sub-Committee and Divya Jyothi Charitable Trust, Mysuru, have organised a State-level chess tournament for visually challenged at the Trust premises in Dattagalli 3rd Stage on Oct. 1 and 2.

Over 100 visually challenged people from across the State will take part. The tournament will be held in seven rounds. A special chess board has been designed for visually challenged. First, second and third prizes will be given along with trophies and certificates. One youngest visually challenged participant will get consolation prize and trophy.

Bus facility from Railway Station and Bus Stands has been arranged. Free food and accommodation will be provided to all from Sept. 30 to Oct. 3 at the Trust premises. A team of 15 Social Workers are deployed to guide and take care of participants. For details, call Ph: 0821-2510129 or Mob: 98864-09563, according to a press release.

Climbing old buildings for Jumboo Savari banned

But do people really care for such a ban?

Mysuru, Sept. 29 (BCT)- As every year, the Mysuru City Corporation (MCC) has issued a directive now to people not to climb the heritage structures on Sayyaji Rao Road on Oct.5, the day of the Dasara procession.

As some buildings have turned weak and cannot hold the weight of a large congregation of people, the MCC has requested the jurisdictional Police to ensure that the order is complied with in the interests of the public.

This order applies to both Government and private buildings. It states that at no point, people will be allowed to climb structures, especially during procession. The order has been issued under Karnataka Municipality Act 1976 Sections 322 (1) and 3 which deal with precautions to be taken with regard to dangerous buildings.

Every year, the MCC Commissioner issues similar orders preventing people from climbing dilapidated structures along the Jumboo Savari route. The order, however, was not issued in 2020 and 2021 as Vijayadashami procession was restricted to the Mysore Palace premises.

Despite the order, hundreds of people are seen climbing heritage structures to watch the grand spectacle. Police try to convince people to get down from the buildings and this has time and again proved to be a futile exercise. Besides, people also climb onto trees to get a glimpse of the Jumboo Savari. They don't even spare the dilapidated and partially collapsed Devaraja Market Building.

The best way forward would be to temporarily seal the entry points of such buildings and request the owners to prohibit crowds from climbing the rooftops for watching the procession, say some shop owners.

World Heart Day today

Heart diseases can be prevented by adopting healthy lifestyle: Dr. M.N. Ravi

Mysuru, Sept. 29 - World Heart Day is observed every year on Sept. 29 and this year's theme is 'Use Heart for Every Heart.' The key message is that it will be an opportunity for everyone to stop and consider how best to use heart for humanity (for a world with equity in access to health care across all strata of society), use heart for nature (air pollution is an important contributor to cardiovascular disease and all of us can contribute to a healthier planet in our own way), use heart for you (avoid using harmful coping mechanisms for psychological stress).

Here, Dr. M.N. Ravi, Senior Heart Specialist and Clinical Director at Narayana Multispeciality Hospital, Mysuru, explains the dangers of cardiovascular diseases and how we can prevent it.

According to WHO statistics, about 18 million people die from cardiovascular (CV) disease every year accounting to worldwide fatalities of 31 percent. One person dies every 34 seconds from CV disease while someone has a heart attack every 40 seconds. About 1 in every 4 heart attacks is silent and the damage is done without the patient being aware of it. These figures will only grow in the years to come.

The incidence of coronary heart disease will increase due to the growing prevalence of poor lifestyle, bad food choices, physical inactivity, obesity, smoking, alcohol, etc. Men, women and children are at risk and 80 percent of the burden is in the low and middle income groups.

Dr. M.N. Ravi

Being a heart specialist in a mid-sized hospital in Mysuru, I can say we see at least 15 - 20 patients with acute heart symptoms and about 100 patients with stable heart symptoms/ known heart disease visiting the OPD everyday. While the State and institutions generally promote technology, health education is ignored to an extent. Of what use are gadgets and spreading awareness on digital technology if we do not teach how to live 'longer' and 'better.'

World Heart Day is a magnificent opportunity to reflect and take initiatives in the area. One is never too old or too young to embrace a healthy lifestyle. The earlier one begins making healthy choices, the longer he reaps the benefits. The risks for coronary heart disease include unhealthy food choices, high cholesterol levels, hypertension, diabetes, obesity, sedentary lifestyle, smoking and alcohol, family history of early (example, under 40 years) heart disease, especially a parent or a sibling

It is possible to decrease your risk by bringing changes in daily life by adopting a healthy lifestyle such as consuming healthy food consisting of fruits, vegetables, whole grains, nuts and lean proteins. Ensure a plate filled with coloured vegetables. Choose small servings of a variety of foods, eat at about the same time and same amount each day. Be sure to add a protein food in each meal and more high fibre foods.

Limit all kinds of alcohol since they are empty calories and pad the belly. Eliminate processed foods like potato chips, packaged foods, fast food and bakery products. Choose olive, groundnut, sunflower or soybean oil over coconut oil, ghee and butter. Avoid salt and look for food labels low in sodium. Drink plenty of water, avoid sweets and sugar rich drinks like soda, juices and energy drinks.

Maintain healthy body weight. Being overweight puts one at risk for heart disease, liver and kidney disease, breathing disorders, arthritis, dementia and cancers. Making healthy food choices in combination with an exercise programme helps in weight loss. Shun sedentary lifestyle. Get moving. Not necessarily gym. The key is just to get up and move. Walk to the neighbourhood store, take stairs at work, park your car at a distance and walk to the workplace. It is important to do at least 30 minutes of moderate aerobic activity everyday as it helps lower CRP levels and delays development of CV diseases. Exercise also reduces body fat levels, boosts the 'good' cholesterol (HDL) and improves insulin sensitivity. The heart, being a muscle, benefits from exercise like all other muscles.

Hypertension quite often is without symptoms, the best way to know for sure is to check. It is safer to have cholesterol screenings starting at age 35 or even younger in people who are smokers or have a family history of heart disease. Screening for diabetes also should happen around the same age.

Smoking damages the arterial wall and is a major cause for coronary heart disease. Smoking damages lungs and causes cancer, so quit smoking now. Chronic stress causes elevated levels of stress hormones and is associated with hypertension. Breathing exercises, meditation and exercise are great ways to de-stress.

Acute CV event heart attack symptoms are variable, but commonly include chest discomfort or chest pain, pain in arms, jaw, neck or back and abdomen and could be mistaken for indigestion or 'gastric'. Dizziness, shortness of breath, fatigue, cold sweat are common symptoms and call for immediate attention ▪

Govt. mulling interest-free loans for women self-help groups: Minister

Mysuru, Sept. 29 (MTY&DM)- Co-operation and Mysuru District In-charge Minister S.T. Somashekar said that the State Government is mulling on lending interest-free loans to women self-help groups.

S.T. Somashekar

He was speaking after inaugurating the 5-day 'Mahila Mattu Makkala' Dasara (Women and Children Dasara) organised by Women and Child Development Department at J.K. Grounds near the city Railway Station here on Tuesday.

Pointing out that the State Government has evolved many plans for women empowerment, he said that the Government has announced in the Budget that a total of Rs. 24,000 crore loan will be extended to over 33 lakh farmers of the State at zero percent interest. Likewise, the Government is also thinking about lending interest-free loans to women self-help groups, he said adding that women should make best use of all Governmental benefits and facilities extended to them.

Commenting on most women taking part in the programme dressed in red colour sarees, Somashekar, in a lighter vein said he and MLA L. Nagendra were first scared at witnessing a sea of red at the venue. But he later learnt that there is a general norm for participating women to attire in a red dress on the second day of Dasara, he noted.

Referring to allegations that locals were kept out of the stage during inauguration of Dasara atop Chamundi Hill on Monday which was done by President Droupadi Murmu, the Minister said that it is the Rashtrapati Bhavan which decides on the number of people and who should be allowed on stage as per the protocol. As such, the District Administration has no say in this regard, he said while expressing regret that people's representatives from Mysuru could not find a place on the dais.

MLA L. Nagendra, in his address, said that this year's Dasara features 31 different types of programmes at various venues.

Asserting that all sections of the society have been given their due in Dasara programmes and activities, he appealed the people to visit all the programmes in large numbers.

ZP Deputy Secretary Prem Kumar, who is also Mahila Dasara Sub-Committee Special Officer, said that the event features display and sale of a variety of products, artefacts and articles manufactured by women self-help groups.

Pointing out that the 5-day event will conclude on Oct.1, he said that there will be several programmes featuring women, Anganwadi workers, children and transgenders. There are 45 stalls in the expo, he added.

Mayor Shivakumar, Deputy Mayor Dr. G. Roopa, Sub-Committee President Sunanda Raju, Vice-President Hema Nandeesh, members Renuka, Kavita Kale and Raghavendra, Women and Child Development Department Deputy Director Basavaraj, Corporator Pramila Bharath, District BJP President Mangala Somashekar and others were present on the occasion.

Suttur Seer inaugurates Srirangapatna Dasara

Srirangapatna, Sept.29- The five-day Srirangapatna Dasara began on a grand yet traditional note in the historic town of Mandya district yesterday afternoon.

Suttur Mutt Seer Sri Shivarathri Deshikendra Swamiji inaugurated the festivities in the auspicious time of 4 pm at Bannimantap near Kirangur Circle by showering flower petals on the idol of Goddess Chamundeshwari placed inside a wooden replica of 'Ambari' that was carried by tusker Mahendra, one of the Mysuru Dasara elephants.

Before the launch of the festivities, Vedic Scholar Dr. Bhanuprakash Sharma performed traditional pujas and associated rituals at Bannimantap.

The 'Ambari' procession, which commenced from Bannimantap, passed through Baburayanakoppalu on Mysuru-Bengaluru road and the main thoroughfares of Srirangapatna town before culminating at Sriranga Vedike built near the famed Sri Ranganathaswamy temple.

The procession was accompanied by a host of folk and cultural troupes and thousands of people had gathered along the entire route to watch the Ambari elephant Mahendra march with majesty carrying the grandly decorated idol of Goddess Chamundeshwari, with kumki elephants Kaveri and Vijaya. More than 10 tableaux of Government Departments, Goa carnival presentation, Mirror Man, Chinese Lion, Kerala folk arts etc., too were part of the procession. The Police department's tableau focusing on the importance of wearing helmets while riding impressed the crowd. The Taluk Administration had made seating arrangements for the public along stretches of Mysuru-Bengaluru road passing through the town, in front of Bus stand, at TMC Office Circle and in front of Taluk Office.

Mandya District In-charge Minister K.Gopalaiah, Minister for Youth Empowerment and Sports K.C. Narayangowda, Srirangapatna MLA Ravindra Srikantaiah, Deputy Commissioner S. Aswathi, SP N. Yatish, Pandavapura Assistant Commissioner B.C. Shivanadamurthy, TMC President Nirmala, Vice-President Krishnappa and a host of political leaders were present.

Srirangapatna Dasara features Yuva Dasara, Raitha Dasara and cultural events over the next four days.

Suttur Mutt Seer Sri Shivarathri Deshikendra Swamiji showering flower petals on the idol of Goddess Chamundeshwari placed atop Ambari elephant to launch Srirangapatna Dasara on Wednesday. Mandya District In-charge Minister K. Gopalaiah, Minister K.C. Narayangowda, Mandya Deputy Commissioner S. Aswathi, SP N. Yatish and others are seen.

Pandit Dr. S. Ballesh Bhajantri to perform amidst cacophony

- Stage near Chikka Gadiyara for his live performance riles music lovers
- 'Shehnai Chakravarthy' to perform today from 8 pm to 9.30 pm

Mysuru, Sept. 29 (BCT)- Thanks to last-minute preparations, hurried arrangements and eleventh-hour scouting of performers of cultural programmes, this Dasara has come under intense public criticism. On many occasions, the organisers have not applied their mind while planning the programmes and also while inviting reputed artistes and allotting places for their performance.

In the process, internationally acclaimed artistes have been treated casually, said connoisseurs of music who are upset. They are surprised at the sheer ignorance of event organisers and also their lack of knowledge about the artistes and their reputation.

Music lovers in Mysuru were elated when they heard that internationally celebrated shehnai artiste and (Patiala Gharana) vocalist, ghazal singer, 'Shehnai Chakravarthy' Padma Shri awardee Pandit Dr. S. Ballesh Bhajantri will perform in Mysuru on Sept. 29 at 8 pm. But their happiness was short-lived when they came to know that the Pandit had been allotted a stage set up near Chikkagadiyara next to Devaraja Market, the busiest area of Mysuru, in the Central Business District. Yes, it is a place for conducting orchestra music during Ganesha Festival, said a connoisseur.

The place attracts people from the wee hours till beyond midnight and the cackle sound dominates the area at every moment by vendors, buyers and casual walkers. Music lovers told Star of Mysore that shehnai music can be heard best in an atmosphere of peace and tranquillity and not amidst din. Shehnai music is a divine experience, some said. Market place is not where it is to be performed.

Pandit Dr. Ballesh Bhajantri

Chikkagadiyara

Music must reach masses

The venue of Chikkagadiyara has been selected as Dr. Ballesh Bhajantri's music must reach more and more people and the masses. All arrangements have been made for a splendid shehnai performance and 500 chairs have been put up at the venue for the first time. Our only intention is that music must reach many people."

— Nirmala Matapathi, Assistant Director, Kannada and Culture Department; Working President, Dasara Cultural Programmes Sub-Committee

Who is Dr. Ballesh Bhajantri

Pandit Ballesh Bhajantri is a disciple of world-renowned Shennai Maestro Bharat Ratna Ustad Bismilah Khan.

Dr. Ballesh hails from M.K. Hubli town in Belagavi district and the Karnataka State Government honoured him with the Karnataka Kalashree in 2019. He was conferred with Padma Shri in 2022. He has a performing career of 45 years and has played shehnai since the age of 11.

He is also a renowned Hindustani classical vocalist and ghazal singer and has been the preferred musician for many music directors and all languages across India such as maestros Naushad Ali, M.S. Viswanathan, Ilaiyaraaja, Oscar winner A.R Rahman and M.M. Keeravani.

Mysore Palace or Ganabharathi suitable

According to music lovers, either Mysore Palace or Ganabharathi with their peaceful ambience and good acoustics was suitable for his performance and definitely not Chikkagadiyara.

Shehnai is loved by one and all, especially the elderly. Pandit Ballesh Bhajantri's programme has been fixed from 8 pm to 9.30 pm. How can senior citizens come to the programme and is it advisable for them to stay that late? What if it rains? How is it possible to hear the music amidst loud sounds including the sound of vehicle horns and other blaring music in the area? These are some of the questions that are bothering those who love to hear his performance.

Dasara Sports Torch lit

Minister S.T. Somashekar handing over the sports torch to a sportsperson in front of Chamundi Hill Temple this morning marking the inauguration of State-level Dasara Sports Meet. MLA L. Nagendra, MP Pratap Simha, Jungle Lodges and Resort former Chairman M. Appanna and sportspersons were present. Around 4,500 sportspersons are likely to participate in the event. All women have right to safe, legal abortion: SC

Marital status cannot be a ground to deprive her of the right of abortion

New Delhi, Sept. 29 (Agencies)- All women are entitled to a safe and legal abortion process and making any distinction between a married and an unmarried woman in this regard is unconstitutional, the Supreme Court ruled today. The ground-breaking judgment by the Bench of Justice D.Y. Chandrachud, Justice J.B. Pardiwala and Justice A.S. Bopanna also saw the Court recognise marital rape, though purely within the ambit of abortion.

The Bench said the artificial distinction between married and unmarried women cannot be sustained and that women must have the autonomy to have free exercise of these rights. The Court ruled that under the Medical Termination of Pregnancy Act, the definition of rape must include marital rape. This observation may pave the way for later judgments on marital rape, a subject of intense debate in the country.

The marital status of a woman cannot be a ground to deprive her of the right of abortion, the Court said, while ruling that even unmarried women would be entitled to terminate an unwanted pregnancy within 24 weeks. The Court said depriving single or unmarried women of the right to abort an unwanted pregnancy is a violation of fundamental rights.

It said a distinction between married and unmarried women under the abortion laws is "artificial and constitutionally unsustainable" and perpetuates the stereotype that only married women are sexually active.

Makkala Dasara: TV Star Baby Vanshika entertains children at Jaganmohan Palace

Third standard student Dhavani stuns audience by telling names of all 224 Assembly Constituencies at a stretch

Mysuru, Sept. 29 (PM&DM)- Jaganmohan Palace in the heart of the city was filled with enthusiastic children from across the District and the State to take part in the two-day 'Makkala Dasara' which took off this morning.

Minister for Primary and Secondary Education B.C. Nagesh, who spoke after inaugurating 'Makkala Dasara' organised by Women and Child Dasara Sub-Committee, said that Mysuru was among the best administered provinces during the rule of erstwhile Maharajas. Pointing out that Mysuru Maharajas gave prominence to democracy and democratic principles, he said that it was the Maharajas who started Dasara celebrations over 400 years ago and this tradition has continued to remain alive even after four centuries. The contribution of the erstwhile Mysore Maharajas for the development of Mysuru and the growth and prosperity of the State cannot be ever forgotten, Nagesh added.

Baby Vanshika Anjani Kashyapa of Gichchi Giligili and Nannamma Super Star-fame TV reality shows, who was a special invitee, wished the gathering a Happy Dasara and enquired her fellow children about their well-being.

Baby Vanshika is the daughter of cine actor Master Anand, who too began his acting career as a child artiste. Vanshika gave a scintillating dance performance to the tune of Ra Ra Rukkamma… , popular song of Sudeep-starrer super-hit film Vikrant Rona, which was released recently.

N. Dhavani, a third standard student of Karnataka Public School at Hegganahalli in the district, stunned the audience by telling the names of all the 224 Assembly Constituencies of the State in one go without any break.

The event at Jaganmohan Palace features 9 stalls exhibiting various Science, Mathematical and Social Science Models prepared and presented by students from several schools across the District. The science Models on street lights, smart irrigation systems, innovations in Science and Technology etc., have been a huge hit.

District Minister S.T. Somashekar, MLA L. Nagendra, Mayor Shivakumar, former MUDA Chairman H.V. Rajeev, DC Dr. Bagadi Gautham, Mahila Mattu Makkala Dasara Sub-committee Deputy Special Officer Dr. S. Premkumar, Sub-Committee President Sunanda Raj, Vice-Presidents Hema Nandeesh, Manjula Shivaramegowda and Mamatha Shivaprasad, member Raghavendra, Secretary Ramachandra Raje Urs, who is Mysuru DDPI, ZAK Chairman M. Shivakumar and other officials were present.

World Heart Day

Precision Cardiac Care

at Apollo BGS Hospital saves lives

By Dr. Arun Srinivas
Chief Interventional Cardiologist and
Head of Apollo Heart Institutes,
Apollo BGS Hospitals, Mysuru

Cardiovascular Disease (CVD) is a leading cause of death globally and one of the most severe health problems throughout the world. It is estimated that cardiovascular disease is responsible for about 23 million deaths annually. Hence there is an urgent need for more efforts and the use of newer technology to diagnose and treat heart disease to reduce the global burden of cardiovascular diseases and non-communicable diseases and to reduce the morbidity and mortality of CVD.

At Apollo BGS Hospitals, we have been practising the following advanced technology procedures to treat cardiovascular diseases among our patients, giving them the advantage of access to the best treatment within the city with faster and safer recovery.

Primary Angioplasty - The Gold Standard for Heart Attack

Primary angioplasty is defined as an emergency angioplasty and stenting procedure done to treat a heart attack. Heart attacks occur due to a gradual or sudden blockage of narrow blood vessels called coronary arteries that supply blood to nourish the heart's musculature. Primary angioplasty can save more than 90% of heart attack patients if done rapidly by an experienced Cardiology Team within a few hours of the onset of chest pain. Through this procedure, a wire carrying a tiny balloon is introduced into the blocked heart blood vessels through an artery in the wrist or the groin and the balloon is inflated to open up the blocks. Usually, this is followed by inserting and placing a tiny spring-like device called a stent at the ballooned site to keep it open permanently. It is the one emergency procedure that saves the maximum number of lives worldwide.

Transcatheter Aortic Valve Implantation (TAVI)

Transcatheter Aortic Valve Implantation (TAVI) is a minimally invasive procedure done under local anaesthesia through the leg artery to replace a narrowed, non-functioning aortic valve. Since it does not involve a significant open-heart surgical procedure, it is the preferred therapy for elderly patients above 65 years with a narrowed aortic valve who have symptoms of breathlessness, chest pain, fatigue, dizziness or fainting attacks.

Endovascular Abdominal Aortic Aneurysm Repair

The aorta is the main blood vessel that supplies blood to the abdomen, pelvis and legs. An abdominal aortic aneurysm occurs when an area of the aorta becomes enlarged or balloons out due to weakness in the artery wall and often occurs in males over the age of 60 years. Surgical repair involves major surgery and, therefore, carries greater risk and delays recovery. Endovascular Aneurysm Repair (EVAR) is a minimally invasive procedure done through the femoral artery (in the upper thigh). A mesh metal tube (Stent Graft) is placed and fastened inside the aneurysm. This strengthens the weakened portion of the aorta and prevents it from further enlargement and rupture.

Advanced Pacemaker Therapy

A Pacemaker is an electronic device implanted in the body to monitor and automatically set the correct heart rate and rhythm if they go wrong. It gives an electrical stimulus to the heart when it does not usually beat and restores its rhythm. It runs on batteries, is implanted just under the skin and has thin wires connecting it to the heart chambers. Pacemaker batteries are very long-lived and need to be replaced only about once in ten years or so.

Implantable Cardioverter Defibrillator (ICD)

Cardiac arrest is a sudden loss of heart-pumping function, breathing and loss of consciousness. Abnormal heart rhythms cause most sudden cardiac deaths. An Implantable Cardioverter Defibrillator (ICD) is a small battery-powered device similar to a pacemaker placed in the chest to detect and treat life-threatening irregular heart rhythms automatically.

At Apollo BGS Hospitals, we have been practising Precision Cardiology with the best available technology to treat heart patients to improve acute results and long-term survival. With newer technology, it is now possible to treat more complex cases, including high-risk ones unsuitable for surgery, with shorter hospital stays, thus enhancing the quality of life and saving lives. So, your best chance to survive a heart attack is at Apollo BGS Hospitals.

Yuva Dasara begins on a colourful note

Appu songs reverberate around Maharaja's Grounds

Young crowds cheer and dance at jam-packed venue

Mysuru, Sept. 29 (MK&BCT)- Delayed by two days, Yuva Dasara got off to a colourful start at the sprawling Maharaja's College Grounds last evening. True to its name, the event attracted thousands of youths. As the performance began, there was little place for movement as the entire Grounds was jam-packed.

As planned by the organisers, the inaugural day was dedicated to Dr. Puneeth Rajkumar and the show was inaugurated by the late actor's wife Ashwini Puneeth Rajkumar in the presence of Raghavendra Rajkumar, Vinay Rajkumar and Dheeran Ramkumar.

The political class present during the inauguration included District Minister S.T. Somashekar, Mayor Shivakumar, MP Pratap Simha, MLA L. Nagendra and MLC C.N. Manjegowda. Deputy Commissioner Dr. Bagadi Gautham was also present.

Flower petals were showered on the portrait of Puneeth Rajkumar and his contributions were silently remembered. The day was called 'Appu Namana' where many of his hit songs were performed. Well-known names in the music industry like Gurukiran, Vijay Prakash, Kunal Ganjawala and Anuradha Bhat performed and thoroughly thrilled the audience who leapt with joy as they heard Appu's songs.

The evening began with a Kodava cultural dance performed by the students of Cauvery College, Gonikoppa and was continued with the performance of a dance troupe from Mysuru. Many dances of Appu films were performed.

The icing on the cake was TV star anchor Anushree, who took over the responsibility of conducting the programme in her typical style, smile and catchy dialogues. On many occasions, she mentioned that Appu was still being seen and experienced on stage and off stage. "Actually, it is 'Appu Sambhrama' and not just 'Appu Namana' and today we are celebrating his presence," she said and the audience cheered her.

Performers from 'Yede Thumbi Haaduvenu' team, actor Vasishta Simha, Bhavana and Ibrahim from 'Dance Karnataka Dance' fame, Raghavendra Rajkumar and Kavya and team sang almost all the hit songs from Puneeth movies amidst thundering applause.

The star attraction of the evening was the performance by Gurukiran, Vijay Prakash and Kunal Ganjawala. They performed to the songs enacted by Puneeth in his movies through which he became a household name, starting from his first movie till the last one before his untimely demise.

Playback singer Kunal Ganjawala, actor Vasishta N. Simha & singer Anuradha Bhat at Yuva Dasara.

Poignant moments for family as Puneeth comes on screen

Mysuru, Sept. 29 (MK&BCT)- At the Yuva Dasara venue, Kannada flags and portraits of Dr. Puneeth Rajkumar dominated the scenes. As renowned singers performed on stage, the late actor's fans waved Kannada flags and held Appu's portraits high in the air as if the actor himself was witnessing the programmes.

Seeing the love showered on her late husband, Ashwini Puneeth Rajkumar broke down and was emotional. While she controlled her tears on the stage, she was unable to do so when the teaser of 'Gandhada Gudi', Puneeth's last movie was released on the stage. Silence prevailed for some moments as Puneeth came on the screen and it was a poignant moment for the family. Along with Ashwini, other members of the family Raghavendra Rajkumar, Vinay Rajkumar, Dheeran Ramkumar too spent some emotional moments, holding each other. Raghavendra Rajkumar said, "You all still love Puneeth and worship him. I can see Appu in everyone, this life is for Appu," he said as tears rolled from his eyes.
